Celebrating 50 Years of Malaysia-China Diplomatic Ties 庆祝马中建交50周年

This year marks the 50th anniversary of diplomatic relations between Malaysia and China. Over the past five decades, Malaysia-China relations have flourished, characterized by a strong momentum of development and deepening strategic mutual trust. Chinese Premier Li Qiang's visit to Malaysia on 18 June 2024 exemplifies the commitment of both nations to further enhance their cooperation across various fields. This historic visit underscores the shared vision of Malaysia and China as we look forward to another 50 years of fruitful and dynamic relations.

Cultural exchanges between Malaysia and China have yielded remarkable results, facilitated by progressive policies aimed at fostering closer ties between the peoples of both nations. A significant milestone would be the introduction of a mutual visa-free entry policy, allowing citizens to visit and stay in each other's countries for up to 30 days without a visa. This policy not only strengthens connections but also paves the way for increased tourism, business opportunities, and cultural understanding.

As we celebrate this Golden Jubilee, it is evident that the bond between Malaysia and China is stronger than ever. The foundation of mutual respect and sincere cooperation forged over the past 50 years will undoubtedly support the continued growth and prosperity of both nations in the decades to come.

今年标志着马来西亚和中国建交50周年的金禧庆典。过去的半个世纪里，马中两国携手奋进共创繁荣，成为了以心交心、坦诚相待、和衷共济的合作伙伴。2024年6月18日，中国国务院总理李强的访问更是进一步推动了两国在各个领域的合作。此富有历史性的访问展示了马中两国共同的愿景，一起期待再创另一个更辉煌的五十年。

马来西亚和中国在文化交流方面取得了显著成果，双方达成共识一同实施了各种促进两国人民交流的政策。2024年的互免签证政策更是一个意义重大的里程碑，让两国公民在对方国家免签停留高达30天。此政策不仅加强了两国人民之间的联系，也为旅游业、商业贸易和文化交流铺平了道路。

在庆祝这一金禧之际，显而易见的是，马中两国的关系比以往任何时候都更加牢固。在过去五十年里所建立的相互尊重和信任的基础，将无疑深化发展两国在未来几十年的持续增长和繁荣。
